

e-Vocational - 2014

“Responding to FELTAG – Technology and the Future Requirements for Assessment and Qualifications”

19th November 2014 – Hilton Leeds City Centre

www.e-vocational.co.uk

- Provisional Conference Programme -

- 0915 Welcome and Chair’s Opening Address by Bob Gomersall, Chairman BTL Group and Virtual College
- 0930 FELTAG - The Challenges and Options for Awarding Organisations and Providers
Patrick Craven, City and Guilds
Nigel Ecclesfield, Jisc
Tim Burnett, BTL
eAA introduction
- 1115 The 50% challenge – technology in support of assessment and qualifications
Will Burrows, Head of Education Technology and Commercial Services, OCR and Matt Wingfield, TAG Assessment “Emerging trends, challenges, and assessment technologies and their potential impact on vocational assessment”
Fiona Hanson, Head of Quality and Performance at Burton and South Derbyshire College
Gavin Busuttill-Reynaud, Director, AlphaPlus Consultancy
- 1245 Lunch
- 1345 How current experience might help drive the agenda
Nick Piper, Caspian Learning and Joe Wilson, SQA
Jonathan Wells, MD, Guroo
Madeleine Jarvis, Senior Teaching and Learning Research Fellow at Manchester Metropolitan University Business School and Rob Arntsen, Chairman, MyKnowledgeMap “Extending e-assessment to embrace wider contexts, use of an individual's own digital tools and devices, and the controlled issue of open badges”.
- 1500 Meeting the Expectations of Learners and Stakeholders
Martyn Roads, Assessment Tomorrow, “Surveying the Learning and Skills Sector”
Denis Saunders, Calibrand
Rod Knox, Virtual College CEO
- 1600 Closing Address - Chair